Mr. Chairman your Committee and Enrollment and Review reports we have examined LR 19 and find the same correctly Enrolled. 591 correctly Enrolled, 593 correctly Enrolled, (Signed) John Cavanaugh, Chairman.

PRESIDENT: Senator Moylan, did you indicate that you would like to speak. All right, thank you. Senator Carpenter for what purpose do you rise.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Would I be in order to suspend the rules and to vote on the bill today that are up for tomorrow.

PRESIDENT: Yes.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Then I so move.

PRESIDENT: Stand by. O.K. Senator Syas.

SENATOR SYAS: I see a lot of bells aren't here and I need 30 votes. It is a constitutional amendment, so with that exception I would appreciate it. He said that is all right, except 104.

PRESIDENT: Senator Duis.

SENATOR DUIS: Mr. President, I believe that there will probably be more gone tomorrow than there are today. That's the thing I'm concerned about. I wanted to vote against 104. That makes no difference. I can do that tomorrow, but Senator Syas I'm afraid you are going to find more gone tomorrow than you are today.

SENATOR SYAS: May I ask that if that happens in fairness to all constitutional amendments, and I've been consistent on this. We will delay it until Monday.

PRESIDENT: Stand by. Just a minute Senator Syas. Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Mr. President. While we are pursuing the element of time. I'm probably out of order. Sometime this morning I think somebody ought to try to determine whether we should even meet tomorrow. There doesn't seem to be anything on the board that would require any particular time. We would save a legislative day, probably. It would not preclude the committee meeting in the afternoon. I only hope that when we get to it the first motion if we pass it after we through on final reading. Then someone will make that suggestion.

PRESIDENT: While the Legislature was in session and capable of transacting business, I have signed LB 591, LR 19 and LB 593. Now, actually the
